ALMA MATER

South Western Senior High School
We love thy name so dear,
We'll always try to keep it
So high and ever near,
For you have given to us
Thy honor, strength and might
We'll raise our voices to hold high
The black and the white.

To thee dear Alma Mater
This ringing song we raise
A song that's filled with gladness
A song that's filled with praise.
We cannot e'er forget thee
Nor let our spirit die,
But keep in tune with your ideals
South Western we will try.

SHREFFLER AND GRIMM

A person who's loving, a person who's kind
Should only be remembered with good thoughts in mind.
A close friend who's caring, understanding, and dear
Should always be close by, should always be near.
Our close friend was care-free, our close friend was here
Once walked beside us, once shared all our cheer.
But now she is gone, she laughs here no more
She's gone to a new life, she went through that door.
Her term was so short here, her dreams incomplete
So much more of life she had yet to meet.
If there was an answer, a way we could try
We'd give her those treasures and moments denied.
The wind blows softly, the wind blows weak
It sings a love song, it kisses a cheek.
So what if our friend doesn't live anymore?
Should we give up on life, should we shut the door?
We still feel her presence, we still see her smile
The memories she gave us bring tears to our eyes.
What would she say, would she want us to cry?
We wish we could ask her what it's like to die.
She knows that we miss her, she misses us too
Our tears fall like raindrops, her tears morning dew.
Morning still dawns, the birds still take flight.
She'd want us to go on, to live on, to fight.
So blow soft wind, blow sweet blow dear
Comfort our sorrows and dry every tear.

We love you . . . The Class of '80

Dave Adams

The Granger Bunch: Here's a story of a coach named Granger, who was coaching a very special team. All of them had muscles like their daddies. The smallest one was Wilt. It's a story of some lonely cheerleaders, who were looking for a very special team. All of them had pep like their mommies and cheered for victory. Then on one day this coach met these cheerleaders and they knew that it was much more than a hunch, that this group must somehow form a family. That's the way we all became the Granger Bunch . . . That's the way we became the Granger Bunch.
